

Vanderburgh County Surveyors in Chronological Order

Legend and historical records indicate that Vanderburgh County was initially surveyed in 1805 and 1806 by Jacob Fowler.

The following list of Vanderburgh County elected Surveyors is taken from the Vanderburgh County Surveyors Record Books. The letter "A" under source, for instance, indicates that the Vanderburgh County Surveyor's Record Book "A" and page number is the source of the named person in question. Accounts in the local newspapers, the Evansville Courier and the Evansville Press, were also used to identify County Surveyors and date elected to office.

This list has been compiled using the best research and local knowledge available however it cannot be deemed conclusive.
