

EVANSVILLE AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM

celebrates

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

February 4

12 pm - 1 pm

Lunch & Learn

Oakland Branch

3001 Oaklyn Drive

Learn about stories of local and national contributions of African American history and culture

Led by Ashley Jordan, Executive Director of Evansville African American Museum

February 8

7 pm

Raisin in The Sun Showing

Old National Public Theatre

This acclaimed Broadway show from 1959 tells the story of one family's quest to better themselves

February 12*

4 pm -6 pm

Community Changemaker Challenge

Evansville African American Museum

579 S Garvin Street

Designed to inspire innovative ideas on how to make our community more fun and attractive to a broader audience

Partnership with Leadership Evansville and the University of Evansville in which winning idea has a chance to be featured on WNIN this summer and to win $1000

February 21*

6 pm - 8 pm

Painting with a Twist

Evansville African American Museum

579 S Garvin Street

Join us for a wonderful night of celebrating black history through art appreciation

$35 includes light refreshments

Contact (812) 423-5188 or ajordan@evansvilleaamuseum.org

February 24

10 am

Reflection Service

Grace and Peace Lutheran Church

200 South Boeke Road

Special service reflecting on the contributions of African Americans from the Underground Railroad to Modern Day
All are welcome to attend

February 26

All day event

Annual Celebration of Nelson Mandela's Social Justice Commemoration

University of Southern Indiana - Performance Center

This year's speaker will be Keeanga-Yamahтта Taylor author of How We Got Free: Black Feminism and the Combahee River Collective

All are welcome to attend

February 28*

6 pm - 8pm

Historical Lecture

Evansville African American Museum

579 S Garvin Street

Experience Facilitator, Anitra Donahue from the EVPL Central Library will provide an overview to the study of the Underground Railroad as well as Freedom Trails in Indiana
General Admission rates apply

* Event held at: 579 S. Garvin Street Evansville, IN 47713