

Evansville–Vanderburgh County Human Relations Commission celebrates FAIR HOUSING MONTH

“Fair Housing: Opening Doors to Inclusion and Justice for All”
Tuesday, April 30th

Central Library (Browning Room A) • 200 SE Martin Luther King Jr., Blvd.

Guest Speaker: Jeffrey May

Jeffrey Paul May is a national expert on fair housing planning and affordable housing. He is the principal of International Development and Planning, LLC. A minority-owned consulting firm that specializes in assisting government agencies, nonprofits, and private clients with plans, studies, analyses and strategies to develop and preserve community and economic development investments.

From 2008 to 2015, May served as the Assistant Director of National Neighbors (NN), a program of the National Community Reinvestment Coalition. His responsibilities were to provide oversight of all NN's education, planning, compliance and enforcement activities occurring across the United States of America.

May has received extensive training as a testing coordinator from the National Fair Housing Alliance and the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development in rental, real estate sales, homeowner's insurance and mortgage lending investigations. He holds a B.A. Degree in Sociology and a Master's Degree in Urban and Regional Planning. He was a member of the Fannie Mae Housing Impact Advisory Council and the National Fair Housing Alliance Board of Directors. He has been a member of the national community development division and state of Louisiana American Planning Associations.

Agenda

- 9:30am Registration
- 9:45am Welcome/Introductions
Diane Clements-Boyd, Evansville–Vanderburgh County Human Relations Commission
- 10am–12pm History of the Fair Housing Act/Fair Housing Principles
Jeffrey May, International Development and Planning, LLC
- 12pm–12:30pm Lunch & Viewing of “Race–The Power of an Illusion”
- 12:30pm–1pm History of Housing Discrimination in Evansville
Kelley Coures, Department of Metropolitan Development
- 1:00pm–2:00pm Fair Housing Prohibited Acts
Jeffrey May, International Development and Planning, LLC
- 2:00pm–3:00pm Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing
Jeffrey May, International Development and Planning, LLC

Please RSVP by April 26th by calling
(812) 436-4927
or email

hrc@evansville.in.gov

Lunch will be provided.

This presentation is free to the public.

