JEFFREY MAY
Guest Speaker

Jeffrey Paul May is a national expert on fair housing planning and affordable housing. He is the Principal of International Development and Planning, LLC., a minority-owned consulting firm that specializes in assisting government agencies, nonprofits, and private clients with plans, studies, analyses, and strategies to develop and preserve community and economic development investments.

From 2008 to 2015, Mr. May served as the Assistant Director of National Neighbors (NN), a program of the National Community Reinvestment Coalition. His responsibilities were to provide oversight of all NN's education, planning, compliance and enforcement activities occurring across the United States of America. He holds a B.A. in Sociology and a Master's in Urban and Regional Planning. He was a member of the Fannie Mae Housing Impact Advisory Council, and the National Fair Housing Alliance's Board of Directors. He has been a member of the National Community Development Division and State of Louisiana American Planning Associations.
